Wardens

Wardens are an Oxford alternative trio, playing the sort of high tensile, dancefloor indie that makes happy summer fields bounce about. Imposing guitars collide with insistent rhythms and cheekily winking discoid basslines, whilst the vocals ladle out enigmatic imagery with devil-may-care offhandedness.

The Pink Diamond Revue

A Reading/London duo of synth rock confectioners, master chocolatiers of the electric pop groove, if you will. Theirs is a world where '60s film soundtracks meet sampladelic acid house in a baggy-punk rathole somewhere in Interzone.

Eloise Rees

22 year old Eloise Rees describes herself as "a small blonde singer-songwriter with a helium voice". Eloise was born and bred in Oxford, and began her music career at the age of 14 in an all girl rock band. Eight years on and she is now a solo act belting out modern melodic folk music with a contemporary country twist.
