

Saturday 25th Apr '15

Orange
Vision

Gabby
P/R/P/E

Reuben's
Rocket

The Wheatsheaf, Oxford.
Doors 8:20pm - Entry £4.50
£3.50 in advance from <http://www.wegotickets.com/gappytooth>
www.gappytooth.com

Saturday 25th Apr '15

Orange
Vision

Gabby
P/R/P/E

Reuben's
Rocket

The Wheatsheaf, Oxford.
Doors 8:20pm - Entry £4.50
£3.50 in advance from <http://www.wegotickets.com/gappytooth>
www.gappytooth.com

Saturday 25th Apr '15

Orange
Vision

Gabby
P/R/P/E

Reuben's
Rocket

The Wheatsheaf, Oxford.
Doors 8:20pm - Entry £4.50
£3.50 in advance from <http://www.wegotickets.com/gappytooth>
www.gappytooth.com

Saturday 25th Apr '15

Orange
Vision

Gabby
P/R/P/E

Reuben's
Rocket

The Wheatsheaf, Oxford.
Doors 8:20pm - Entry £4.50
£3.50 in advance from <http://www.wegotickets.com/gappytooth>
www.gappytooth.com

Orange Vision

A new wave, shoegaze, indie and psych band, who claim influences from such cheerily odd, good-time rockers as The Hives, Peace, Swim Deep, Palma Violets, Pulp, Temples and Northside and more importantly they claim their main interest to be “playing sweaty low-ceilinged gigs”. Must be why the NME booked them for its New Breed tour last year, then.

<http://soundcloud.com/orangevision>

P/R/P/E

As this Gloucester one-man pop noise army puts it himself, he “experiments with sounds from all outposts of modern music, to produce consistently genre-shifting music”. His pop, rock, punk, electronic explosion is a wonderful ear-mangling world where laser-injected guitars cut against shortwave radio, and tape loops play alongside digital drum machines.

<http://www.facebook.com/poprockpunkelectronic>

Reuben's Rocket

A rare stripped-down show for one of Oxford's most charming acoustic acts, doling out warm folky pop in the vein of Ben Howard and Newton Faulkner. Nightshift noted that the music is “well-arranged, well-produced [and] extremely mature”.

<http://www.moogieman.com>

Orange Vision

A new wave, shoegaze, indie and psych band, who claim influences from such cheerily odd, good-time rockers as The Hives, Peace, Swim Deep, Palma Violets, Pulp, Temples and Northside and more importantly they claim their main interest to be “playing sweaty low-ceilinged gigs”. Must be why the NME booked them for its New Breed tour last year, then.

<http://soundcloud.com/orangevision>

P/R/P/E

As this Gloucester one-man pop noise army puts it himself, he “experiments with sounds from all outposts of modern music, to produce consistently genre-shifting music”. His pop, rock, punk, electronic explosion is a wonderful ear-mangling world where laser-injected guitars cut against shortwave radio, and tape loops play alongside digital drum machines.

<http://www.facebook.com/poprockpunkelectronic>

Reuben's Rocket

A rare stripped-down show for one of Oxford's most charming acoustic acts, doling out warm folky pop in the vein of Ben Howard and Newton Faulkner. Nightshift noted that the music is “well-arranged, well-produced [and] extremely mature”.

<http://www.moogieman.com>

Orange Vision

A new wave, shoegaze, indie and psych band, who claim influences from such cheerily odd, good-time rockers as The Hives, Peace, Swim Deep, Palma Violets, Pulp, Temples and Northside and more importantly they claim their main interest to be “playing sweaty low-ceilinged gigs”. Must be why the NME booked them for its New Breed tour last year, then.

<http://soundcloud.com/orangevision>

P/R/P/E

As this Gloucester one-man pop noise army puts it himself, he “experiments with sounds from all outposts of modern music, to produce consistently genre-shifting music”. His pop, rock, punk, electronic explosion is a wonderful ear-mangling world where laser-injected guitars cut against shortwave radio, and tape loops play alongside digital drum machines.

<http://www.facebook.com/poprockpunkelectronic>

Reuben's Rocket

A rare stripped-down show for one of Oxford's most charming acoustic acts, doling out warm folky pop in the vein of Ben Howard and Newton Faulkner. Nightshift noted that the music is “well-arranged, well-produced [and] extremely mature”.

<http://www.moogieman.com>

Orange Vision

A new wave, shoegaze, indie and psych band, who claim influences from such cheerily odd, good-time rockers as The Hives, Peace, Swim Deep, Palma Violets, Pulp, Temples and Northside and more importantly they claim their main interest to be “playing sweaty low-ceilinged gigs”. Must be why the NME booked them for its New Breed tour last year, then.

<http://soundcloud.com/orangevision>

P/R/P/E

As this Gloucester one-man pop noise army puts it himself, he “experiments with sounds from all outposts of modern music, to produce consistently genre-shifting music”. His pop, rock, punk, electronic explosion is a wonderful ear-mangling world where laser-injected guitars cut against shortwave radio, and tape loops play alongside digital drum machines.

<http://www.facebook.com/poprockpunkelectronic>

Reuben's Rocket

A rare stripped-down show for one of Oxford's most charming acoustic acts, doling out warm folky pop in the vein of Ben Howard and Newton Faulkner. Nightshift noted that the music is “well-arranged, well-produced [and] extremely mature”.

<http://www.moogieman.com>