Tess Of The Circle

A British independent band that focuses on the songs of male songwriter Tess Jones. The forthcoming album Amplify promises shades of '70's rock fused with hints of post-grunge and alt indie. Tess' established acoustic guitar riffs and biographical lyrics have previously seen him gain widespread critical recognition, but this year focuses on a new rock groove driven sound, adding intent to the intimacy of Jones' words. "Catchy and energetic" The Telegraph.

Hoggs Bison

A Bristol band stopping by on their UK tour, who deal in post-rock soundscapes and mathletic intricacies. There are elements of Fugazi and The Jesus Lizard in their sound, but they come closest to the lighter touch of Battles or Three Trapped Tigers. "Hoggs Bison play bright, fresh rock music ... infectious groovy sections too ... Can't wait to hear their next release!" Turn That Racket Down.

Momento

A three-piece band of Greek and English origin. Influences range vastly from classical to electronica, rock and hip-hop as well as being slightly inclined towards the British trip-hop scene of the 90s. Expect fusion, folk, and chops, as harp and accordion intertwines with guitar and percussion. "Intriguing... out of the ordinary... brilliantly played" Nightshift.
