

Saturday 29th Oct '16

Peter Roch

Lady Nade

Stolby

The Wheatsheaf, Oxford.

Doors 8:20pm - Entry £4.50

£3.50 in advance from <http://www.wegotickets.com/gappytooth>

www.gappytooth.com

Saturday 29th Oct '16

Peter Roch

Lady Nade

Stolby

The Wheatsheaf, Oxford.

Doors 8:20pm - Entry £4.50

£3.50 in advance from <http://www.wegotickets.com/gappytooth>

www.gappytooth.com

Saturday 29th Oct '16

Peter Roch

Lady Nade

Stolby

The Wheatsheaf, Oxford.

Doors 8:20pm - Entry £4.50

£3.50 in advance from <http://www.wegotickets.com/gappytooth>

www.gappytooth.com

Saturday 29th Oct '16

Peter Roch

Lady Nade

Stolby

The Wheatsheaf, Oxford.

Doors 8:20pm - Entry £4.50

£3.50 in advance from <http://www.wegotickets.com/gappytooth>

www.gappytooth.com

Peter Roch

Three-man psychedelic garage rock from Oxford and London boasting a sound compiled from intensity, grit and soulfulness. "Their sound is experimental, reflected by their techniques- the drummer ditched the sticks for one song and played with the palms of his hands[...]Very impressive" Sugarground.
<http://www.peterroch.co.uk>

Lady Nade

Bristol's Lady Nade has supported the likes of Zara McFarlane and Vintage Trouble, and performed in countless locations, from underground bars to festival fields, concert venues to European cities, weaving blues into soul, jazz into folk and country into gospel with a poise that belies her age. "Whatever the ailment, Lady Nade is the cure...a satin voice" BBC Introducing.
<http://www.ladynade.co.uk>

Stolby

Light and airy pop from a new Oxford quartet whose songs sound like sherbet and sunshine in a napsack made of tunes. What we have heard sits somewhere between Juliana Hatfield and Edie Brickell, which is just dandy on our book.
<http://www.soundcloud.com/stolby>

Peter Roch

Three-man psychedelic garage rock from Oxford and London boasting a sound compiled from intensity, grit and soulfulness. "Their sound is experimental, reflected by their techniques- the drummer ditched the sticks for one song and played with the palms of his hands[...]Very impressive" Sugarground.
<http://www.peterroch.co.uk>

Lady Nade

Bristol's Lady Nade has supported the likes of Zara McFarlane and Vintage Trouble, and performed in countless locations, from underground bars to festival fields, concert venues to European cities, weaving blues into soul, jazz into folk and country into gospel with a poise that belies her age. "Whatever the ailment, Lady Nade is the cure...a satin voice" BBC Introducing.
<http://www.ladynade.co.uk>

Stolby

Light and airy pop from a new Oxford quartet whose songs sound like sherbet and sunshine in a napsack made of tunes. What we have heard sits somewhere between Juliana Hatfield and Edie Brickell, which is just dandy on our book.
<http://www.soundcloud.com/stolby>

Peter Roch

Three-man psychedelic garage rock from Oxford and London boasting a sound compiled from intensity, grit and soulfulness. "Their sound is experimental, reflected by their techniques- the drummer ditched the sticks for one song and played with the palms of his hands[...]Very impressive" Sugarground.
<http://www.peterroch.co.uk>

Lady Nade

Bristol's Lady Nade has supported the likes of Zara McFarlane and Vintage Trouble, and performed in countless locations, from underground bars to festival fields, concert venues to European cities, weaving blues into soul, jazz into folk and country into gospel with a poise that belies her age. "Whatever the ailment, Lady Nade is the cure...a satin voice" BBC Introducing.
<http://www.ladynade.co.uk>

Stolby

Light and airy pop from a new Oxford quartet whose songs sound like sherbet and sunshine in a napsack made of tunes. What we have heard sits somewhere between Juliana Hatfield and Edie Brickell, which is just dandy on our book.
<http://www.soundcloud.com/stolby>

Peter Roch

Three-man psychedelic garage rock from Oxford and London boasting a sound compiled from intensity, grit and soulfulness. "Their sound is experimental, reflected by their techniques- the drummer ditched the sticks for one song and played with the palms of his hands[...]Very impressive" Sugarground.
<http://www.peterroch.co.uk>

Lady Nade

Bristol's Lady Nade has supported the likes of Zara McFarlane and Vintage Trouble, and performed in countless locations, from underground bars to festival fields, concert venues to European cities, weaving blues into soul, jazz into folk and country into gospel with a poise that belies her age. "Whatever the ailment, Lady Nade is the cure...a satin voice" BBC Introducing.
<http://www.ladynade.co.uk>

Stolby

Light and airy pop from a new Oxford quartet whose songs sound like sherbet and sunshine in a napsack made of tunes. What we have heard sits somewhere between Juliana Hatfield and Edie Brickell, which is just dandy on our book.
<http://www.soundcloud.com/stolby>