Lowws

A confection of smooth electro pop glory for the summer months. After a wee while in hibernation, we're very happy to welcome back Lowws. As our Bible Nightshift said "elegant production and dirty guitars, coalesced with rich, confident writing and subtle swagger means that Lowws is a stellar offering". One for fans of Wild Beasts, Mew, The Maccabees, Everything Everything and Foals.

Ed Geater

For Birmingham born singer-songwriter and beatboxer Ed Geater, rhythmical dexterity is complemented by lyrical prowess. Influenced by his obsession with ambient electronic artists Ed creates vivid and textural musical landscapes using his organic vocal beats, acoustic guitar and loop station. "Ed Geater is a perfect example of how beatbox can be used in magically creative ways." Human Beatbox.

Webs & Marionettes

A trio delivering top notch alternative guitar pop, as likely to deliver wistful Belle & Sebastian reveries as funky Red Hot Chili Peppers bouncedowns, with just the lightest whiff of classically effortless rock of a Tom Petty vintage. Rousing and delicate in equal measure, Webs & Marionettes are the perfect act to set a good night of music on its tracks.
