

Saturday 31st Aug '19

Gluem

Touchy
Coma

My Crooked
Teeth

The Wheatsheaf, Oxford.

Doors 8:15pm - Entry £4.50

£3.50 in advance from <http://www.wegotickets.com/gappytooth>

www.gappytooth.com

Saturday 31st Aug '19

Gluem

Touchy
Coma

My Crooked
Teeth

The Wheatsheaf, Oxford.

Doors 8:15pm - Entry £4.50

£3.50 in advance from <http://www.wegotickets.com/gappytooth>

www.gappytooth.com

Saturday 31st Aug '19

Gluem

Touchy
Coma

My Crooked
Teeth

The Wheatsheaf, Oxford.

Doors 8:15pm - Entry £4.50

£3.50 in advance from <http://www.wegotickets.com/gappytooth>

www.gappytooth.com

Saturday 31st Aug '19

Gluem

Touchy
Coma

My Crooked
Teeth

The Wheatsheaf, Oxford.

Doors 8:15pm - Entry £4.50

£3.50 in advance from <http://www.wegotickets.com/gappytooth>

www.gappytooth.com

GlueMan

Fraught, atmospheric sensitive rock from this longstanding Oxfordshire quartet. Like a Fairisle sweater, their music is chunky but warming, a comforting hug of relaxed melodies and big old indie rock rhythms. Take a listen to "Set Sail", a loping easy number that sounds like Elliott Smith with extra fuzzy warmth.

<http://www.soundcloud.com/glueMan-oxford>

Touchy Coma

Touchy Coma are coming all the way from Paris to play for us, and bringing their rocking mixtures of post-punk, alt rock and garage indie with them. Their unique sound is a combination of bittersweet melodies, impetuous guitar riffs and a jangly electronic edge, overlaid with delicate string arrangements. Imagine a mixture of St Vincent, The Smiths and Gang of Four, but more French, and there you go, instant good times (but more French).

<http://www.facebook.com/touchycoma>

My Crooked Teeth

My Crooked Teeth is the Gappy-suitable moniker of Oxford songwriter Jack Olchawski. Having spent the last decade contributing to a wildly eclectic set of projects he has since become recognised as an emerging songwriting talent in his own right.

Described as 'the truest of troubadours' by BBC Introducing, My Crooked Teeth also featured in the 'Top Ten Bands from Oxford' list by Bring The Noise.

<http://www.facebook.com/MyCrookedTeeth>

GlueMan

Fraught, atmospheric sensitive rock from this longstanding Oxfordshire quartet. Like a Fairisle sweater, their music is chunky but warming, a comforting hug of relaxed melodies and big old indie rock rhythms. Take a listen to "Set Sail", a loping easy number that sounds like Elliott Smith with extra fuzzy warmth.

<http://www.soundcloud.com/glueMan-oxford>

Touchy Coma

Touchy Coma are coming all the way from Paris to play for us, and bringing their rocking mixtures of post-punk, alt rock and garage indie with them. Their unique sound is a combination of bittersweet melodies, impetuous guitar riffs and a jangly electronic edge, overlaid with delicate string arrangements. Imagine a mixture of St Vincent, The Smiths and Gang of Four, but more French, and there you go, instant good times (but more French).

<http://www.facebook.com/touchycoma>

My Crooked Teeth

My Crooked Teeth is the Gappy-suitable moniker of Oxford songwriter Jack Olchawski. Having spent the last decade contributing to a wildly eclectic set of projects he has since become recognised as an emerging songwriting talent in his own right.

Described as 'the truest of troubadours' by BBC Introducing, My Crooked Teeth also featured in the 'Top Ten Bands from Oxford' list by Bring The Noise.

<http://www.facebook.com/MyCrookedTeeth>

GlueMan

Fraught, atmospheric sensitive rock from this longstanding Oxfordshire quartet. Like a Fairisle sweater, their music is chunky but warming, a comforting hug of relaxed melodies and big old indie rock rhythms. Take a listen to "Set Sail", a loping easy number that sounds like Elliott Smith with extra fuzzy warmth.

<http://www.soundcloud.com/glueMan-oxford>

Touchy Coma

Touchy Coma are coming all the way from Paris to play for us, and bringing their rocking mixtures of post-punk, alt rock and garage indie with them. Their unique sound is a combination of bittersweet melodies, impetuous guitar riffs and a jangly electronic edge, overlaid with delicate string arrangements. Imagine a mixture of St Vincent, The Smiths and Gang of Four, but more French, and there you go, instant good times (but more French).

<http://www.facebook.com/touchycoma>

My Crooked Teeth

My Crooked Teeth is the Gappy-suitable moniker of Oxford songwriter Jack Olchawski. Having spent the last decade contributing to a wildly eclectic set of projects he has since become recognised as an emerging songwriting talent in his own right.

Described as 'the truest of troubadours' by BBC Introducing, My Crooked Teeth also featured in the 'Top Ten Bands from Oxford' list by Bring The Noise.

<http://www.facebook.com/MyCrookedTeeth>

GlueMan

Fraught, atmospheric sensitive rock from this longstanding Oxfordshire quartet. Like a Fairisle sweater, their music is chunky but warming, a comforting hug of relaxed melodies and big old indie rock rhythms. Take a listen to "Set Sail", a loping easy number that sounds like Elliott Smith with extra fuzzy warmth.

<http://www.soundcloud.com/glueMan-oxford>

Touchy Coma

Touchy Coma are coming all the way from Paris to play for us, and bringing their rocking mixtures of post-punk, alt rock and garage indie with them. Their unique sound is a combination of bittersweet melodies, impetuous guitar riffs and a jangly electronic edge, overlaid with delicate string arrangements. Imagine a mixture of St Vincent, The Smiths and Gang of Four, but more French, and there you go, instant good times (but more French).

<http://www.facebook.com/touchycoma>

My Crooked Teeth

My Crooked Teeth is the Gappy-suitable moniker of Oxford songwriter Jack Olchawski. Having spent the last decade contributing to a wildly eclectic set of projects he has since become recognised as an emerging songwriting talent in his own right.

Described as 'the truest of troubadours' by BBC Introducing, My Crooked Teeth also featured in the 'Top Ten Bands from Oxford' list by Bring The Noise.

<http://www.facebook.com/MyCrookedTeeth>