Slow Lane

Slow Lane are an alternative rock band from Oxford who originally formed under the name The Girls to play a college open mic in the early summer of 2024 and immediately noticed a chemistry between the 4 members. A few months later, they began writing, and have been going ever since, regularly gigging and continuing to write songs showcasing influences such as Radiohead, Smashing Pumpkins and Jeff Buckley. "[Slow Lane] bring shoegaze fuzz and just a dash of Stone Roses swagger to their chunky rock" Nightshift www.youtube.com/@slowlane1

Life In Mono

Life In Mono are a Bristol-based, dark and immersive band with sounds blending grunge, alt-rock and post-rock. All bristling with atmosphere, and drawing influences from Brutus, Portishead, Deftones and PJ Harvey. The band already have Radio 1 play under their belt and their recent single "Basic Reality" was a Spotlight BBC Introducing track. www.youtube.com/@lifeinmono

Gross Domestic Product

Gross Domestic Product is a new project from John Jackson, of GTI alumni King Panic. Although the songs are eloquent and approachable, they address, assess and act as therapy for an abusive homelife in John's past (and even as we type this we get the joke in the act name – nope, we're not quick on the uptake). Expect emotion, healing, and a little bit of trumpet. www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=61579111994395
